

Winter Newsletter

2023/24

Oh my goodness!!
It's freezing, wet, windy - horrible

Never mind, it's always lovely and cosy at Harlawhill

The decorations are down, the Xmas tree away and we are back to auld claes and porridge. It's the time of year to look forward and stick to our resolutions. The staff at Harlawhill will be going above and beyond the call of duty once again to make Harlawhill Day Centre the envy of everyone else.

Lot's to look forward to, including, Burns Night, Valentines Day, Mother's Day and Easter. A fun packed early start to 2024. We'll need everyone to sharpen up these artistic and creative skills

A few guidelines to follow over the remaining winter months

Remember, if you are suffering from sickness and diarrhoea, you need to stay away from the day centre for a minimum of 48 hours. Also, if you are feeling under the weather with sniffs and sneezes, then again stay away from the centre. As we have many elderly personnel mingling together, we don't want to spread our diseases to other's. That would not be nice. And if you are not coming to the centre on your assigned day, then please remember to call Fiona on 814989 so she can divert the bus from going on an unnecessary journey.

Centre News -- Our team

Staff

Fiona's the BOSS, say no more

Gillian has been with us a while now and we have long forgiven the fact she hails from Wallyford (somebody has to)

Emma is our quiet, calm member of staff, never flusters and puts people at ease

Jackie is our Arts and Crafts expert who excels in a one to one with members continually encouraging them

And Louise, who is always feeding us up, plenty drinks, singing and dancing, she's like the Duracell Bunny, never stops.

Yvonne and Dougie are our bus drivers who take care of us to and from Harlawhill.

And the lovely Avril who keeps our centre sparkling clean.

Volunteers

Monday – Pauline Archibald

Tuesday – Ina O'Brien and Lee Adamson

Wednesday – Linda Tennent and Ann Kerr

Thursday – Ina O'Brien (again, good old Ina, oops, shouldn't have said old)

Friday – Nora Hogg (who is currently having a lovely time in Australia)

Trustees

Fiona Stewart (our lovely chairperson)

Morag McLeod, our secretary extraordinaire

Bill Miller, a typical treasurer (still counts in Farthings)

Ewan McMillan, our ukulele playing trustee

Janet Smith is our Care Commission contact

And out two new trustees Susan Johnston and our past bus driver and newsletter editor Robert Gillies (Editor – that's me). Please be gentle with us

Social Media

Sorry to any members if they were disappointed that staff can't be friends on their personal Facebook pages, this is a new procedure and just us following guidance from the care inspectorate.

You can still follow us on the Harlawhill Facebook page and if you need to get in touch with the centre, do it through the proper channels, phone the centre or leave a message and we will get back to you asap.

Donations

As always, the generosity of our community leaves me breathless. People of Prestonpans may need Harlawhill Day Centre but rest assured, we need the people of Prestonpans every bit as much. Many times, different sectors of the community step up when we need them and at other times, donations appear from the most unlikely places. We are truly grateful to each and every one of you. These donations go into a separate account solely used for members for entertainment, birthday treats, outings and all the extras we need to keep everyone happy, singing and dancing. Our accounts are always available to see and looked after by our treasurer Bill, who treats every £ as a prisoner (just kidding, he's a nice man).

Departures and Arrivals

We have sadly said goodbye to a few people in the past months for a number of reasons.

Members who have stopped attending due to requiring 24 hour care at home are Margaret Brown Jnr and Frank McLeod

Members who have moved into a Care Home are Margaret Brown Snr, Isobel Stewart, Margaret McNeill, Peter Mullock and Isa Ross

Sadly, the following members have passed away – Ella Cranston, Elsie Leigh, Jean Thorpe, Jimmy Redpath and Tam Kelly

And the lucky people who have recently arrived to join our renegade band of recycled teenagers are Margaret Ross, David Brown, Helen Wells, Agnes Stewart, Andrew Davie, Nan McKenzie, Dana Zuzeviciene, Elizabeth Wilson and Sheila Sheridan – welcome aboard.

And finally, we say a very sad farewell to little Kylie, the lovely little companion of Phamie Swan. Our members loved seeing Kylie in the centre, she was a well-behaved little dog who reached 15 years old and always smartly turned out with her pink bow in her hair

Your Voice

Your voice is important, your ideas are always welcomed. Lots of activities coming up so if there is anything in particular you wish to see or even try, just speak to any member of the staff who will be only too pleased to listen, advise and get going

This also applies to any family member or carer that our members have, the more idea's, the better.
